PRESS RELEASE

Generali agrees sale of businesses in Guatemala and Liechtenstein

Trieste – The Generali Group has entered into two agreements to sell its businesses in Guatemala and Liechtenstein respectively. The transactions are part of its active investment management strategy that focuses on investments in geographic areas that are most attractive for the Group and in lines of business with greater potential and less capital or cash absorption.

In Guatemala, Generali signed an agreement to sell its participation, equivalent to 51% of the share capital, in Aseguradora General S.A., a company that is mainly active in the P&C segment, to its local partners.

In Liechtenstein, the Group signed an agreement through its subsidiary, Generali Schweiz Holding AG, for the sale of 100% of Fortuna Lebens-Versicherungs AG, life insurance company in run-off since 2015, to FWU AG, group operating in the financial services sector with its headquarters in Munich (Germany).

Both transactions are conditioned on the approval of the competent authorities.

THE GENERALI GROUP

The Generali Group is one of the largest global insurance providers with 2015 total premium income of more than €74 billion. With more than 76,000 employees serving 55 million customers, present in over 60 countries, the Group has a leading position in Western Europe and an increasingly significant presence in the markets of Central and Eastern Europe and in Asia. In 2015, Generali was the sole insurance company included among the 50 smartest companies in the world by the MIT Technology Review.
