PRESS RELEASE

Trieste - Generali announces that Giancarlo Scotti, Chief Executive Officer and General Manager of Generali Real Estate and Generali Properties, will leave his positions with effect from March 31, 2014, to pursue and develop a new professional endeavor.

Mr Scotti joined the Generali Group in 2007 and has dealt with the global development of the Real Estate business. Generali thanks Giancarlo Scotti for his valuable job over these years. Under his management, the asset management and Real Estate services company Generali Real Estate SpA was established. Generali Real Estate has merged the existing companies operating in the sector and has grown to become one of the leading global players, present in 11 countries with €28 billion of assets under management.
