

Generali appoints Luca Cetrano as Group Chief Investment Officer

Milan – Generali announces the appointment of Luca Cetrano as Group Chief Investment Officer, effective as of 1 June 2026, reporting to Group General Manager, Marco Sesana.

In his role, Luca Cetrano will be responsible for steering, coordinating and monitoring all investment activities for the Group's insurance portfolios.

Luca first joined Generali Investments in 2012, where he held different roles with increasing responsibilities. In 2021, he became Head of Portfolio Construction and Tactical Asset Allocation of Generali, most recently expanding his remit to include Strategic Asset Allocation and the Group's Holding Investments Portfolio.

THE GENERALI GROUP

Generali is one of the largest integrated insurance and asset management groups worldwide, with a total premium income of € 98.1 billion and € 900 billion AUM in 2025. Established in 1831, with over 88,000 employees and 163,000 advisors serving 75 million customers, the Group has a leading position in Europe and a growing presence in Asia and America. At the heart of Generali's strategy is its Lifetime Partner commitment to customers, achieved through innovative and personalised solutions, best-in-class customer experience and its digitalised global distribution capabilities. The Group has fully embedded sustainability into all strategic choices, with the aim to create value for all stakeholders while building a fairer and more resilient society.
