Massimiliano Ottochian appointed Group Head of Mergers & Acquisitions

Milan – Massimiliano Ottochian has been appointed Group Head of Mergers & Acquisitions at Generali, reporting directly to the General Manager, Frédéric de Courtois.

Massimiliano Ottochian will be responsible for identifying profitable growth opportunities in the markets and sectors with the highest potential, contributing to the consolidation of the Group's leadership in the insurance and asset management sectors.

With over twenty years of experience in M&A operations at international level, since 2009 Massimiliano Ottochian has served as Managing Director of the Financial Institutions department at Deutsche Bank, where he managed coverage for European customers. He has previously held a similar role at UBS.
