

Generali appoints Emanuele Moneghini as Group Chief Audit Officer

Milan – Generali announces the appointment of Emanuele Moneghini as Group Chief Audit Officer, effective as of 1 October 2026.

In his role, Emanuele Moneghini is responsible for the Group Audit function and for coordinating the Group's Internal Audit functions, with the objective of assessing the adequacy and effectiveness of the internal control system and other components of the governance framework.

Emanuele first joined Generali in 2005, where he held different roles with increasing responsibilities. In 2015, he was appointed Head of Internal Audit Austria, Central Eastern Europe & Russia, and in 2021 he assumed the role of Group Head of GH0 & Thematic Audit, with responsibility for assurance activities covering the business, finance and governance areas at the Group Head Office.

THE GENERALI GROUP

Generali is one of the largest integrated insurance and asset management groups worldwide, with a total premium income of € 98.1 billion and € 900 billion AUM in 2025. Established in 1831, with over 88,000 employees and 163,000 advisors serving 75 million customers, the Group has a leading position in Europe and a growing presence in Asia and America. At the heart of Generali's strategy is its Lifetime Partner commitment to customers, achieved through innovative and personalised solutions, best-in-class customer experience and its digitalised global distribution capabilities. The Group has fully embedded sustainability into all strategic choices, with the aim to create value for all stakeholders while building a fairer and more resilient society.